EXECUTION.—Execution upon a judgment for payment of money or costs can issue immediately after judgment, unless expressly otherwise ordered by the court or judge. Execution can only be stayed by order of the court upon grounds satisfactory to the court. Writ of execution is good in Supreme and County Courts for one year if not carried out, and it may be renewed at expiration of the year, or a new execution issued.

EXEMPTIONS.—The necessary wearing apparel, beds, bedding and bedsteads of debtor and his family, stove and pipe therefor, crane and appendages, pair andirons, set cooking utensils, pair tongs, six knives, six forks, six plates, six saucers, one shovel, one table, six chairs, one milk jug, one tea pot, six spoons, one spinning wheel, sewing machine, one weaving loom, if in ordinary domestic use, ten volumes of religious books, one water bucket, axe, saw, such fishing nets as are in common use, not exceeding in value $20, all necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour and vegetables for family use, enough for thirty days' consumption and not exceeding in value $40, cow, two sheep, one hog, and hay and food therefor for thirty days, tools and implements of or chattels ordinarily used in the debtor's occupation to the value of $30. GARNISHEE.—After recovery of a judgment in the Supreme or County Court the judgment creditor may attach any debts owing or accruing from any person or persons to the judgment debtor, and service of an order of a judge on any such person or persons called the Garnishee shall bind such debts in the hands of such garnishee, but no wages of any servant, laborer, or workman shall be attached unless the amount of such wages exceeds $40, and such attachment shall only bind the surplus of such wages over and above the sum of $40.

HOLIDAYS.—In all matters relating to bills of exchange the following are legal holidays: Sundays, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Christmas Day and Labor Day; also any day appointed a public holiday by the Governor, or by a statute. When the last day of grace falls on a holiday, the next day shall be the last day of grace. The same law applies to presentation of bills of exchange and promissory notes.

INTEREST.—Interest cannot be charged on open accounts, except by a valid agreement, or an established course of dealing in which it has been paid or acknowledged by debtor.

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments may be obtained during the vacation of court when suits undefended, as well as at other times. They can be obtained in ten days after service when the defendant resides in any part of Nova Scotia. When the defendant resides out of the Province judgment may be entered on the expiration of the time allowed defendant to appear, which is limited by the court. Judgments are good for twenty years from their date.

JURISDICTION OF COURTS.—Supreme Court has jurisdiction downwards to $20, in all matters of contract. County Court has jurisdiction in all matters of contract and tort where the amount claimed is not less than $20 nor more than $800 in contracts and $400 in tort. Justices courts have jurisdiction in all matters ex contractu up to $80.

LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS.—Actions for assault, battery, menace, wounding, imprisonment or slander must be brought within one year. Actions in trespass to lands, assumpsit, detinue, trover replevin, debt founded on any contract, express or implied without specialty, libel, malicious prosecution and arrest, seduction, criminal conversations and actions formerly called trespass on the case except as herein provided, and actions for rent and account without specialty within six years. Actions to enforce judgments or liens or mortgages or otherwise chargeable on any land or rent, or any legacy, and actions on any deed, covenant on instrument under seal or to recover land, shall be brought within twenty years. Acknowledgement in writing or part payment will extend the period of limitation.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—Unless he signs an express agreement to the contrary, and in that case subject to the provisions of the Act respecting manual laborers, etc., any person who performs any work or services upon or in respect of, or places or furnishes any materials to be used in the making, constructing, erecting, fitting, altering, improving or repairing of any erection, building, railway, land, wharf, pier, bulkhead, bridge, trestlework, vault, mine, well, excavation, fence, sidewalk, pavement, fountain, fishpond, drain, sewers aqueduct, roadbed, way, fruit or ornamental trees, or the appurtenances to any of them, for any owner, contractor, or sub-contractor, shall by virtue thereof have a lien for the price of such work, service or materials upon the erection, building, railway, land, wharf, pier, bulkhead, bridge, trestlework, vault, mine, well-excavation, fence, sidewalk, paving, fountain, fishpond, drain, sewer, aqueduct, roadbed, way, fruit or ornamental trees, and appurtenances, and the land occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith, or upon or in respect of which such work or service is performed, or upon which such materials are placed or furnished to be used. If the lien is claimed by a sub-contractor, the amount claimed in respect to the lien as limited to the amount payable to the contractor. In cases where the estate charged by the lien is a leasehold to fee simple may also be charged with consent of the owner of the fee simple. Unregistered liens cease after thirty days from the furnishing of the goods or labor unless proceedings are instituted to realize claim. Registered liens cease after ninety days from date of goods or labor last furnished unless proceedings are taken. Claims must be sued for in County Courts. Proceedings are begun by filing a statement of claim in the office of the Clerk of the County Court and in default of payment of amount sued for property may be sold. The lien holder's right of lien passes to the legal representative of the lien holder.

PARTNERSHIPS.—All persons associated in partnership for trading, manufacturing or mining purposes, and every person who is engaged in any such business and uses as his business style some name or designation other than his own name, or uses his own name with the addition of the words "and Company" or some other word or phrase indicating a plurality of members in the firm, are required to file, in the Registry of Deeds for the registration district in which the business is carried on, a declaration in writing containing the name, surname, addition and residence of each of such partners or of the persons so carrying on business under said firm name or style and the firm name or style under which the business is carried on or intended to be carried on, and such declaration is required to be filed in such registry of deeds within three months next after the formation of such partnership or the date when such firm name or style was first used.

Limited Partnerships.—Provision is also made by the laws of Nova Scotia for the formation of limited partnerships for the transaction of business, with the exception of a banking or insurance business. Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons or general partners, who shall have the full usual responsibility of general partners and of one or more partners who shall contribute in actual cash payment a specific sum as capital, called special partners, and such special partners shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund so contributed by them to the capital except in certain cases specifically provided for. Persons desirous of forming such partnerships are required to make and severally sign a certificate containing particulars of the names of the firm, the nature of the business, the names of the partners, their places of residence, the amount of capital which each partner has contributed, and the period at which the partnership is to commence, and at which it will terminate. Such certificate must be proved and filed in the office of the Registrar of Deeds for the registration district where the principal place of business of the partnership is situate. The certificate must also be verified under oath, which affidavit of verification must be filed at the same time in the Registry of Deeds and publication of the terms of such parntership must be made in the Royal Gazette and one other newspaper published in Halifax and by hand bills posted up in the places in which the business of the partnership is carried on.

VERIFICATION OF CONTRACTS.—This is unnecessary.

WILLS—Cannot be legally made by persons under 21 years of age. A married woman can make a will without her husband's consent. All wills must be in writing and signed by the testator, or by some one duly deputed in his presence to make the signature at the foot of the will. The due execution thereof must be acknowledged in the presence of two or more witnesses who, in the presence of testator and of each other, subscribe the instrument as witnesses. Marriage revokes a will, except when made by virtue of a power of appointment, or where it is declared in the will that same is made in contemplation of marriage, or where the husband or wife of testator elects to take under such will by instrument in writing executed and filed in Probate Court within a year after testator's death, but a change of residence does not. A will only speaks from the death of the testator. Estates are liable to succession duties to amounts fixed by statute, which are changed from time to time by the Legislature.
